

Demons or angels

Yuh, i don't know, i don't know
Whether it's demon or angels that you left to grow
Yuh, i don't know, i don't know
Your voices in my head at a strident note

I never thought you'd be the one to leave me lone
You left me so quick, moving on is slow
A Chain of events lead to a break the flow
I'd rather be in hell than close to you

Yeah i'm risking death thinking about you, Im endangered
On the bright side you get to live with me as a stranger
I don't belong, i'm a mudblood, Hermione Granger
Love's magical but involves its dangers when time changes

I got migraine since you migrated outta my life
A high rate of a sigh face all of the time
Cuz a fine face decided she'll walk outta my sight
Now the night life's lightweight, im spending time with my sci-fi mind and it's quite late
Using alcohol to hydrate, my fate's salty like a nitrate,
Combine all of the swine you left behind, now my head's swelling up, feeling like a white whale

GOD! I hate you now and vice versa.
Really thought that you were the right person
Can't speak pain, so I tend to write verses
I am blessed, but i still fight curses
I got blessed just to fight curses
Is it love? Is it hate? I don't know what the term is
I just know who the girl is,
And she's making life concerning

I bet my life that we'll fall in love if we ever hug again
Do you really think we can live by being just friends
Running like a headless chicken cuz life took away the hen
Im either hoping for you or hoping for the end

Was it my fault? Did I mess up in any way?
If I swear to God, didn't mean to hurt u in any way
Anyways, i'll get back to my life where i'm thinking bout you everyday
Love in reality disappoints when you get out of that fairy tale

Yuh, i don't know, i don't know
Whether it's demon or angels that you left to grow
Yuh, i don't know, i don't know
Your voices in my head at a strident note
